Users Newsletter Winter 2003

Welcome to Christmas 2003 at the Village Hall

The Village Hall hopes to be the focus of a fun packed festive season for all in St Cyrus. This December there are lots of seasonal events taking place, including the Play-group Christmas Fun Fair this Saturday afternoon from 2pm and the Youth Club Christmas Concert on Friday 12th Dec at 7:30pm, with mulled wine and mince pies. We hope everyone will come and have some fun at the Village Christmas Fair from 10 til 2 on Saturday 6th December. See below for more details for these events. We look forward to all lending their support! Thanks to all contributors to this issue.

Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

Youth Club

Christmas Concert

Friday 12th December 7:30pm

A great night for all the family, with carols and other songs to get you in the festive mood! Entry fee to Youth Club finances. Tickets available from the committee; £2 adults, £1 kids.

Tea & coffee, mulled wine and mince pies will be for sale at the kitchen.

Flower Show Update

The St. Cyrus Flower Show was a very successful event this year. There were new names as prize winners and entries in all classes were up in numbers. It was very encouraging to have more entries for the Jonwen Junior Cup. Can we have even more next year?

Youth Club

We meet on Friday nights during term times. Junior Club (P5-7) is from 6.30 - 8.15pm with Seniors (S1-3) from 8.30 -10.00 pm.

The 2004 session begins on Friday 16th January.

All local children are welcome, new children can come along as guests before joining. In-house sports/leisure activities and occasional trips provided. Terrific value at £1 per night with a £5 annual membership fee!

Contact Ian Tuck 850645.

O A P Club

Meets on the second Monday of the month at 7:30pm.

You do not have to be an OAP to join us. All are welcome.

Scottish Country Dance Group

This friendly class meets on Monday evenings from 19:30 to 21:00 between September and the end of May. New members are welcome, but as a great number of the group are experienced dancers some previous experience is necessary. It is not a beginner's class.

Several social events are held throughout the season and we have an open dance in April. If anyone is interested in joining, please contact Joan Davidson, telephone no. 850367

Women's Rural Institute

The W.R.I. season has begun with a varied programme. New members and visitors are welcome. We hope something from the programme appeals to you.

Free

Everyone is welcome for this simple service of worship and teaching of the Christian faith (about 60 people from the area attended at least one of our services/supper evenings in the first year). At the moment, we are studying the "parables" of Jesus (everyday stories with spiritual meaning). Starting January, we will be holding a "Christianity Explored" course, with meal.

Services -- First Sunday of each month --

Other news --

The long awaited renovation of the Hall floor will take place between 19th December until we open again 12th January, hence the large hall will not be available during this period.

Want to advertise your regular Hall activities?

Just hand the text of your advertisement to a committee member, or put it on a floppy! Required by the end of February.

It will then be included with the next quarterly newsletter.
